PROGRAMMA DI LINGUA INGLESE classe III A
A.S. 2011/2012 Prof. Marcella Fiori

GRAMMAR Unit 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21

- Present perfect tense (just;since/for;already/not yet/ still)
- Present perfect vs. past simple. Been and gone.
- Whose, possessive pronouns and possessive adjectives
- Each/every, each other, both and one another
- Will, be going to vs present continuous
- Will have + past participle
- Will be +ing
- Modal verbs*:* must have, can't have, could have
- All conditionals 1st type, 2nd type 3rd type
- When, as soon as, unless

FUNCTIONS and VOCABULARY

- Speaking about sport and sport activities
- Ask and talk about recent activities
- Talk about events and experiences
- How to understand job adverts and how to fill in job application forms
- Professional areas
- Job Interviews
- Telephone language
- Talking about the future, making decisions, promising, offering, requesting
- Expressing possibilities
- Making phone calls
- Using emails and chat rooms
- Talking about conditions
- Keeping the conversation going
- Talking about pet hates
- Emergency situations
- Environmental problems

CULTURE

- Schools of English
- Endangered species
- Summer camps in the USA
- Part- time jobs
- The Irish question
- Saint Patrick's day celebration

LITERATURE: Why do we study literature?

THE ORIGINS: The making of the nation
The Celtic culture across Europe: Video activity
The Epic Poem
Beowulf: some extracts. (From photocopies from the Mirror of the times vol. I).

THE MIDDLE AGES: The Plantagenets .

The Ballad
Lord Randall; Edward
The medieval Narrative Poem
Geoffrey Chaucer: Canterbury Tales
Texts: The Prioress;

Porto Torres, 8 Giugno 2012

Gli alunni L'insegnante